

Dear Young Clergy and Seminarians:

You are INVITED! The Global Methodist Church is hosting its inaugural Young Clergy Conference to bring together young leaders in the denomination to empower and encourage them in their ministry.

The conference will be held at the camp grounds in Lake Junalaska, NC on April 8–10th of this year! We know it is just around the corner, but the GMC has gathered the funds so that the first 100 people who show interest will only have to pay a $25 fee and travel to get there. So, grab some friends and mark your calendars for this wonderful event! This conference has been designed by a team of young GMC leaders to be an opportunity to connect and worship, The Acts 2:42 Conference invites you to join in "the apostle's teaching, fellowship, breaking of bread, and prayer.

If you already know you are interested in this event, we ask that you fill out this interest form out by Feb. 1st so we can send out registration and get everyone booked for an amazing 3 days:
